Dedication

To Our Parents

It is appropriate that this yearbook, whose theme is time, should be dedicated to our self-sacrificing PARENTS' CLUB, because few organizations in Saint Andrew's High School have given more time to her greater glory than this one. Over the years project after project, meeting after meeting, have resulted in more improvements for us—never for themselves. With this year's Tower we say "Thank you!" to all of the mothers and fathers—past, present, and to come—whose love and devotion and time have given to us, their daughters, an example we shall never forget.

The year began with the enthusiastic reports of the delegates to the SSCA and a "hymnenanny."

All men complain that they haven't enough time. They look at their lives from too human a point of view. There is always time to do the things that God wants us to do, but we must put ourselves completely into each moment that He offers us.

Christmas baskets for the poor and Christmas presents for the Adopt-A-Family movement were among the most successful projects of the whole year.

Members of the Service Club are carefully chosen from all those who submit applications for membership, because they must be dependable and willing to work. They supervise the schoolyard, the Lost-and-Found, and usher at the school play. Any student will testify to this club's spirit.

This year, under the leadership of their capable president, they have selected as their club patron Saint Joseph, the Worker; and to honor him they celebrated together on his feast day.

the science club

To keep apace with the world around us, this club for budding young scientists was begun a few years ago and has continued to flourish. Its big project for the year is the Science Fair, but other great results come about too, such as the summer science classes in Los Angeles, which members may be qualified to attend. Every Friday experiments abound in Room 107.

Membership in the California Scholarship Federation is one of the most coveted on the campus, because it entitles members to such wonderful academic possibilities in getting ready for college. The organization has a two-fold purpose: the attainment of high scholastic accomplishment and the participation in varied school and civic activities.

Four seniors became Sealbearers by their first semester: R. Lavelle, M. Hovelson, L. Nicassio, and C. Riordan. Congratulations!

Some members

the library club

Our Library Club, with Kathleen Costello as president, takes care of all the workings which are not directly done by Mrs. Van Tassell. They sign out books, locate hard-to-find volumes and in turn sit at the librarian's desk. This club is an essential part of keeping the school running well.

Parlez-vous francais? Habla Español? Members of the Modern Language Clubs learn to think with and about other peoples. In the process of singing the songs of other lands, eating their foods and speaking their languages, each girl improves herself.

Both clubs produced one-act plays this year.

The Spanish Club likes to have meetings at Ernies's; the French Club prefers picnic lunches in the park. For everyone the meetings are what the seniors (above left and right) wanted to dramatize—"group therapy."

Folk songs of Spain and France can now be sung in the native tongue. Vicki Dowling is at the guitar; Mary Parpal and Mary Davis join in the singing; Mary B. Stevens takes the Fifth Amendment.

alumnae association

In order to preserve cherished high school contacts, the Alumnae hostesses the annual Homecoming Luncheon on Low Sunday. In the 60 years of Saint Andrew's growth, this association has gained a membership of approximately 1700.

One of the chief annual contributions of the Alumnae to its Alma Mater is the sponsoring of full tuition scholarships for two students.

Mr. Myron Jeffers (below) thrilled the audience with many demonstrations which made the vast world of space an understandable phenomenon.

Of all the speakers this year who have really captured our attention, the two gentlemen from NASA with the Space-mobile Program were tops. For 90 minutes we sat spellbound. Thanks to our Science Department for this wonderful treat!

1965 Tournament of Roses Princesses, Our Guests

The first week back from Christmas we had the pleasure of meeting not only our two graduates, Christine LeSage '64 and Heidi Hawkins '63, but also the other princesses. Christine arranged for their surprise arrival, modeling part of the $1,000.00 wardrobe each girl received.

Mary May and Louise Gatti shared the honors of introducing our guests. Later the faculty met all of them in Sister Superior's office, while they were served refreshments.

We are especially proud that out of 3,300 girls, 2 of the 7 members of the court were from Saint Andrew's.

George Washington Attends St. Andrew's First Playday

Terri Bylard, GAA President, and Jodie Zampielo watch as Town Crier Louise Gatti welcomes all the schools to our first playday.

A first school playday is always a memorable occasion, but ours this year was especially memorable; first of all, George Washington (Chris Brow, below) attended; and second, it rained. But good old St. Andrew's luck was with us. Brother Martin, principal at LaSalle High School, came to our aid and gave us the use of the school gym (above). And we defeated Ramona.

We came back to St. Andrew's for the rally.

Margaret at KRLA

Under the patronage of Sister Mary Gregory and Mrs. LaSelle, members of the history classes vied for final honors in the annual "Voice of Democracy" Speech Contest. The local VFW Legion Post obtained excellent judges; among them were Mr. Lee Merriman, editor of the Independent-Star News, and Mr. Bill McMillan, KRLA newscaster. The highlight for all the finalists was a tour of Station KRLA, where the winner, Margaret Riordan, did the recording of her speech for the national contest.

Honors Assembly

Sister Superior reads the "honored."

The Honors Assembly at the end of each quarter every year is one of the main activities, because it is then we find out how well we have done. Monsignor Hourihan always congratulates us for "trying our best."

And then the class percentages are read.

Linda Nicassio accepts the Citizenship Honor Cup on behalf of the surprised senior class.

Ditto. For the first time the Class of 1965 won not one, but the two, honor cups.

The Auxiliary Commander of the Veteran of Foreign Wars and representatives attended Honors.

Rev. Joseph Sartoris, a past resident of Saint Andrew's, came again this year in September to give us an inspiring Day of Recollection. His theme: "Relax, girls, relax."

Religious Highlights

Student Council representatives Mary May, Terri Bylard, Pam Jones, and Louise Gatti attended the 75th Jubilee celebration of the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary, held in Saint Vibiana's Cathedral in January.

Mayor of Pasadena, Our Guest

His Honor Floyd O. Gwinn
Mayor of Pasadena

This is the first time that the Mayor of Pasadena has visited Saint Andrew's High School. He was the invited guest of Social Chairman Louise Gatti, who planned from early September to have him speak to the student body. The Mayor's talk covered the position of youth in politics. Mayor Gwinn discussed ways in which teen-agers could start to improve their future by participating now.

Monsignor Hourihan came to greet Mayor Gwinn, to thank him for taking time to be with us, and to pledge our support to him as our mayor.

Louise Gatti, Ellen Davis, Mayor Gwinn and Monsignor Hourihan after the assembly.

More Speakers

From Mary Louise Hickey to Ellen Davis

Our ever-favorite, Miss Hickey, this year performed for the student body and guests G.B. Shaw's Pygmalion. She is "Our Fair Lady."

Alumnae (r.-l.) Donna Erpenbach '64 and Judy Grant '62 with a graduate of Notre Dame Belmont talked informally with the seniors about the value of Catholic women's colleges.

Ellen Davis was one of the volunteers who visited and spoke to the eighth-graders in 18 surrounding grammar schools. Apparently she was also speaking on behalf of St. Francis, LaSalle and Loyola.

triumphed again as the best salesman of our product at Saint Andrew's High School. This year marks an historic event for the Tower-Hinckley family combination. With Kay's victory in the November Ad Month, the Hinckleys, starting with Joanne in 1956, have to date sold a total amount in advertising large enough to produce one complete Tower yearbook by themselves. Congratulations and thanks are in order!

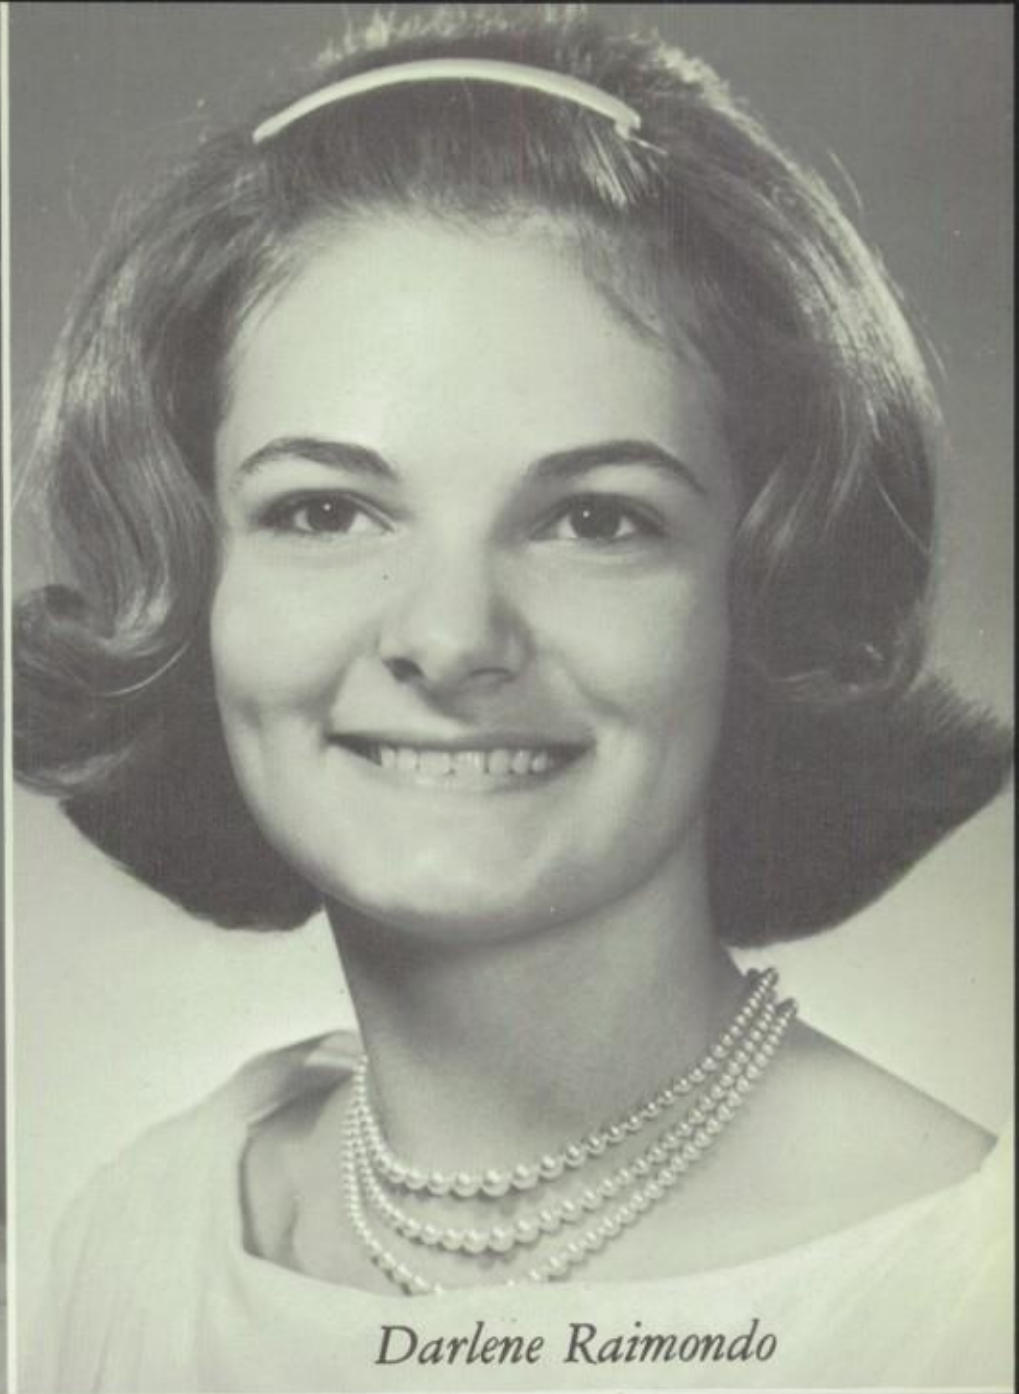

Four others also deserve special congratulations and thanks for being the runners-up to Kay: the Misses Kathleen Phillips '66 Maria Giordano '67. Charlise Le Greco '67, and Darlene Raimondo '68.

To all who supported the yearbook and made it possible to reach the goal with only "the finished product as your reward," we say a special

Bulletin

Thought for the day, every day. Some boards speak for themselves.

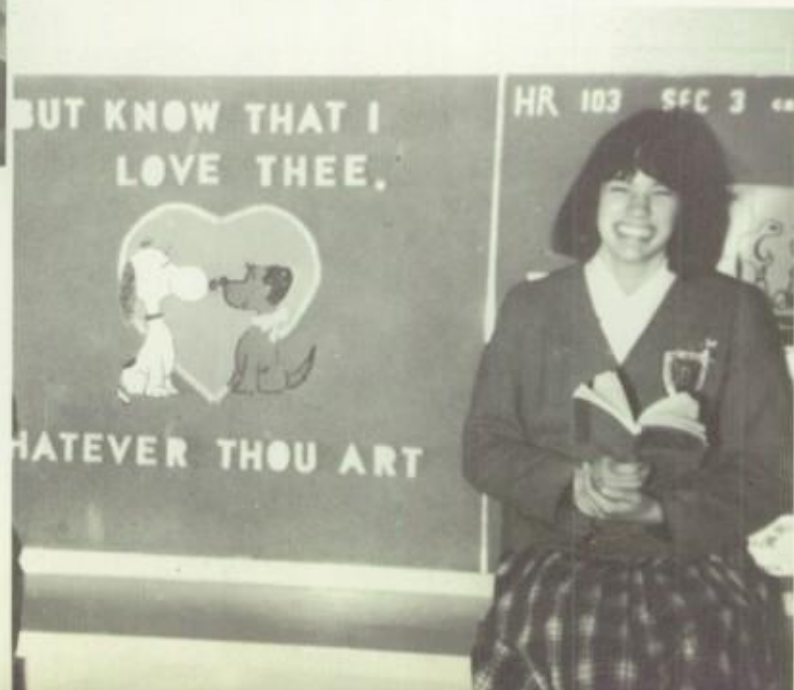

This year our Publicity Committee, headed by Social Chairman Louise Gatti and moderated by Sister M. Carmela Rose, reached new heights in efficiency and ingenuity. From the donkey and elephant made of plastic Clorox bottles in November, to the college boards for the College Boards, to a last "Farewell" in string and tissue paper in June, they kept the school interestingly informed.

Contests! ... dragons, dinosaurs, prancing chargers, and even Snoopy, race from the starting gate.

The freshmen have not gone to the dogs. Instead Snoopy has gone to Shakespeare!

It held my hand and opened my eyes; I had waited an eternity. I had smiled, and it beckoned me on. We walked slowly, but I was impatient, and it passed me with a brilliance that blinded me.

I wanted to escape, to run down the road and hurry into the night. But it held me tighter and walked slower. I was bored with the journey.

Then I turned around, and it had passed, galloping in a misty sleet. I sought to clutch the reigns. They were too powerful to hold, and they slipped through my hands.

TIME

I was lost in a deep cavern, but it still passed. I looked back to grasp the past, and the future slipped away from me. I cried for it to wait, but it only turned its back and left me in the wind. My plea was too late, and now it is gone.

(Reserved)

Dear Lynda,
Well Sodality P. have fun this summer. It was great being in Prom C. together
Remember the hair cut I gave you?
I hope it didn't do any harm.
Love
Bernie.

Jim,
Just a little something
to say! Lynda,
Congratulations Sodality
C. Have fun this summer and come back the same as you left.
See you next year.

Lynda,
Have fun during the summer. I know you'll be a really great prefect.
Sue, Carol.

Lynda,
I know you
make a fabulous perfect. I guess the perfect has come to say
I hope you'll not forget you.
Love,
Lynda

Lynda,
Thanks so much
for everything this year.
You have driven me everywhere, even crazy. And luck next year and always. I know you'll make a better prefect than I ever could have. I know you will go far with your personality.
Love always,
Margaret.

Lynda,
Congratulations on becoming Prefect. I know you'll do a great job. Stay sweet always and I'll see you next year.
Love ya,
